Client Email/Texting Informed Consent Form

Risk of using email/texting:

The transmission of client information by email and/or texting has a number of risks that clients should consider prior to the use of email and/or texting. These include, but are not limited to, the following risks:

1. Email and texts can be circulated, forwarded, stored electronically and on paper, and broadcast to unintended recipients.
2. Email and text senders can easily misaddress an email or text and send the information to an undesired recipient.
3. Backup copies of emails and texts may exist even after the sender and/or the recipient has deleted his or her copy.
4. Employers and on-line services have a right to inspect emails sent through their company systems.
5. Emails and texts can be intercepted, altered, forwarded or used without authorization or detection.
6. Email and texts can be used as evidence in court.
7. Emails and texts may not be secure and therefore it is possible that the confidentiality of such communications may be breached by a third party.

Conditions for the use of email and texts:

Therapist cannot guarantee but will use reasonable means to maintain security and confidentiality of email and text information sent and received. The provider is not liable for improper disclosure of confidential information that is not caused by intentional misconduct. Clients/Parent's/Legal Guardians must acknowledge and consent to the following conditions:

1. Email and texting are not appropriate for urgent or emergency situation. Courtney Lowe MCP, LPC, LLC cannot guarantee that any particular email and/or text will be read and responded to within any particular period of time.
2. Email and texts should be concise. The client/parent/legal guardian should call and/or schedule an appointment to discuss complex and/or sensitive situations.
3. All email will usually be printed and filed into the client's medical record, and texts may be printed and filed as well.
4. Courtney Lowe MCP, LPC, LLC will not forward client's/parent's/legal guardian's identifiable emails and/or texts without the client's/parent's/legal guardian's written release of information on file, per, authorized by law and consent.
5. Clients/parents/legal guardians should not use email or texts for communication of sensitive medical information.
6. Courtney Lowe MCP, LPC, LLC, the provider, is not liable for breaches of confidentiality caused by the client or any third party.

It is the client's/parent's/legal guardian's responsibility to follow up and/or schedule an appointment if warranted.
